

CERTIFIED MEDICATION TECHNICIAN TEST

NAME: _____ DATE: _____

1. You should never discuss a resident's medical condition, medications or treatment to anyone outside your facility or to other residents. This is called
 - a. Last Will and Testament
 - b. Subpoena
 - c. Warranty
 - d. Confidentiality

2. Zantac (ranitidene) is a histamine blocker and, therefore, is useful in the treatment of
 - a. Hemorrhage
 - b. Hypertension
 - c. Ulcers
 - d. Vomiting

3. When handling a non-prescription medication, you should first _____
 - a. Make sure it was ordered by the doctor
 - b. Call the resident's family
 - c. Call the doctor to double check the directions
 - d. Give it to the resident

4. Which of the following is something you cannot do when you help with medications?
 - a. Unlock the drug storage unit
 - b. Decide if a resident should take a medication
 - c. Take residents to the medication
 - d. Take medications to the resident

- 5. Drugs in amounts of 4 or 5 mL that are given intramuscularly are
- Given in the middletooid area
 - Divided into half
 - Given in a large syringe
 - Given with a larger needle
- 6. A medicine that increases the output of urine is a/an
- Emetic
 - Cathartic
 - Astringent
 - Diuretic
- 7. Premarin (conjugated estrogen) , used as a hormone replacement and for other treatments, belongs to the chemical group
- Steroids
 - Emetics
 - Opiates
 - Cholinergics
- 8. Acetaminophen with codeine is an
- Antipruritic
 - Analgesic
 - Antidepressant
 - Antiflatulent
- 9. In order to give residents their medications
- They (or their guardian) must give written consent
 - The doctor must order the medication
 - You must complete a state-approved training course
 - All of the above
- 10. What is the abbreviation for cubic centimeters?
- ccent
 - mls
 - cc
 - cus
- 11. The generic name is usually the same as the
- Official name
 - Brand name
 - Trade name

d. Product name

12. The medication for injections should be verified at least

- a. One time
- b. Two times
- c. Three times
- d. Four times